Sam Tinsley Joins Thornton Tomasetti's Boston Office as Senior Vice President

(New York, N.Y. – March 13, 2017) –Thornton Tomasetti, the international engineering firm, announces that Sam Tinsley, P.E. has joined its Boston office as a senior vice president in the Structural Engineering practice. Tinsley has more than 30 years of experience in structural design, analysis and project management and will contribute to the firm's growth in the Northeast region as well as across the U.S.

Key Points

- Sam Tinsley has considerable expertise with challenging projects, such as those with unique architecture, deep foundations or requiring precise construction sequencing or coordination. His credits include Oculus at the World Trade Center Transportation Hub in New York City, several terminals at Boston's Logan International Airport, the National Aquarium expansion in Baltimore, Maryland, and the Riyadh Metro light rail project in Saudi Arabia.
- During his career, Tinsley has worked for firms such as AECOM, Simpson, Gumpertz and Heger, Lim Consultants and Weidlinger Associates, which merged with Thornton Tomasetti in 2015. He served two lengthy tenures at Weidlinger in the early 1980s and mid-90s, during which he focused on high-end design projects.
- Tinsley is a licensed professional engineer in Massachusetts and Maine. He is a member of the American Concrete Institute, the American Institute of Steel Construction, the American Society of Civil Engineers and the Boston Society of Civil Engineers.
- He holds a master's degree in civil engineering from Northeastern University in Boston and a bachelor's degree in civil engineering from Vanderbilt University in Nashville, Tennessee.

Executive Quotes:

Sam Tinsley, Senior Vice President, Thornton Tomasetti

“Thornton Tomasetti offers some amazing technical resources like its integrated building information modeling capabilities, and leveraging it will open up a number of opportunities for us, particularly with larger projects in the Boston market. I’ve always been impressed by Thornton Tomasetti, a 1,200-plus person organization that somehow maintains the feel of a small firm.”
