Savitt Partners Team Arranges Long-Term Retail Lease for ITSU at 530 Seventh Avenue

New York – July 24, 2017 – Savitt Partners today announced that ITSU, a British chain of Asian-inspired fast food shops, restaurants and grocery stores, has inked a long-term retail lease at 530 Seventh Avenue. Founded by Julian Metcalfe, co-founder of Pret a Manger and founder of Metcalfe's Food Company, in partnership with Clive Schlee, ITSU committed to 2,100 square feet of retail space on the ground floor of the 490,000-square-foot property located on 39th Street and Seventh Avenue in the Fashion District. Average asking retail rent at the boutique office building is $400 per-square-foot.

Bob Savitt, Brian Neugeboren and Nicole Goetz of Savitt Partners acted on behalf of the building ownership. The RKF team of Jaclyn Totolo, Ariel Schuster and Michael Paster represented ITSU in the lease negotiations.

The 2,100 square-foot lease at 530 Seventh Avenue represents the eatery's first location in the US. Headquartered in London, Great Britain, ITSU has nearly 60 locations around London featuring menus that celebrate the amazing flavors of the Far East, high in nutrients yet refreshingly low in calories and saturated fat.

"We welcome ITSU to the property and the neighborhood, said Mr. Savitt. "Over the past few years the Garment District has experienced a true renaissance with the incredible influx of major TAMI office tenants, as well as several new and exciting neighborhood eateries and hotels. ITSU will benefit greatly from 530 Seventh Avenue's central location in the heart of Midtown Manhattan, near all forms of transportation and the overall buzz surrounding the area."
