Pickard Chilton-Designed BOK Park Plaza Opens in Oklahoma City

(New Haven, Conn. – April 2, 2018) -- Pickard Chilton announces the opening of BOK Park Plaza in Oklahoma City, a tower that further contributes to the city's skyline. The next-generation office tower developed by Hines is situated in the heart of the city's Arts District at 499 West Sheridan Avenue, just steps away from Bicentennial Park and Myriad Botanical Gardens.

Pickard Chilton is an award-winning architecture studio best known for its innovative and cutting-edge design of corporate headquarters and campuses. BOK Park Plaza encompasses 27 floors, including 25 of Class-A office space with abundant natural light and panoramic views. The 1.5 million gross square-foot development will include world-class retail and dining facilities and will achieve LEED-CS Gold certification.

BOK Park Plaza has already welcomed anchor tenant Bank of Oklahoma, which occupies the top four floors.
