Fried Frank Reps Neutrality Management Team in Acquisition of Neutrality Data Centers

New York, September 4, 2019 – Fried Frank acted as co-counsel to Amerimar, the management team of Neutrality, in connection with the acquisition, in partnership with Macquarie Infrastructure Partners IV, of Neutrality Data Centers from funds managed by Abrams Capital Management.

Neutrality owns and operates facilities that act as data connectivity hubs in their respective markets for customers who need direct connections across multiple networks, clouds and other service providers. Neutrality's facilities also feature colocation, powered shell, and wholesale data center solutions.

The Fried Frank team included real estate partner Jonathan Mechanic, corporate real estate partner Lee Parks, tax partner Libin Zhang, executive compensation & ERISA partner Jeffrey Ross, and corporate real estate special counsel Patrick Greeley.
