CBRE's Jacqueline Novotny Organizes Fundraiser to Benefit Houston Residents Affected by Hurricane Harvey

Waterfront Love Concert Scheduled for September 6th at Calf Pasture Beach in Norwalk, CT
Featuring Tim Currie's Motown Review Band

Stamford, CT – August 30, 2017 – Jacqueline Novotny, a Vice President at CBRE's Stamford office has arranged a fundraiser event to benefit the residents of Houston, TX affected by Hurricane Harvey. Mayor Rilling and the Norwalk Parks and Recreation Department have agreed to extend the Norwalk Summer Concert Series for one more week in aid to raise money for the cause. Sponsored by the City of Norwalk, Tim Currie's Motown Review Band, CBRE and Smith Creative, the concert, Waterfront Love, will take place on September 6th from 6:30PM to 9:00PM at the Calf Pasture Beach in Norwalk, CT. The live concert will feature Tim Currie's Motown Review Band who has agreed to perform at the event for free. Donations will go directly to benefit the victims of the hurricane.

“With more than 35,000 people displaced from their homes in Houston, we wanted to show our love and support of the afflicted community,” notes Ms. Novotny. “Working together with Mayor Rilling, the City of Norwalk and Tim Currie's Band, we are putting together a great event to support a waterfront community in need. We encourage residents of Norwalk and the surrounding area to join us on September 6th.”
