Pickard Chilton's growth has continued even throughout the pandemic, taking on a range of innovative projects. The firm recently completed 4.4 million GSF of new mixed-use/office space across the U.S. and is currently working on over 5 million GSF and nearly $2 billion of new projects in the past year, including 200 Mission and the PG&E Campus redevelopment in San Francisco, the CoStar Campus in Richmond, and a diversity of mass timber and life sciences developments. The elevation of 29 of its design professionals and staff is a testament to the firm's ongoing success and evolution, particularly as Pickard Chilton celebrates its 25th anniversary.

"Pickard Chilton's consistent growth and success would not have been possible without the efforts of this group of talented and exceptional professionals," said Jon Pickard FAIA, RIBA, principal of Pickard Chilton.

"They share in the firm's core values and have sustained the firm's reputation for and commitment to design excellence and client service," added principal William D. Chilton.

"We are proud to acknowledge and celebrate the firm's momentum and our team's achievements to date," said principal Anthony Markese FAIA, RIBA, LEED AP.
